Dear Scott:

I sent the following letter to Brad Leitch on April 30, 2010.

Just got back and I am not going to be able to afford the advertising at this time. My car's catalytic converter went and it costs almost $1,000 plus an oxygen sensor went which cost $300 and need to have by timing belt changed. I have bill for $2500 to $3000. I cannot afford to have any other bills at this time.

When I am able to proceed, I will contact you.

I thought everything was set as I did not hear back from Brad.

Thank you. Charles Collins
