Charles,

A conversation of this nature should not occur through email. I reached out to you this week and left you a voicemail. Please call me at my direct line when you get a free second. You signed an agreement for three months of our service with the budget included.

Warmest Regards,

If you know of anyone who may be dissatisfied with their current online campaigns I would be honored to give them a consultation free of obligation. Please forward me their contact information and we can arrange for an introduction. I can reward you with $200 for every client you send my way.

Scott, Brad:

Please be advised that you are not to spend any more of my money on any type of ads.

Since my money has not been refunded, I have notified my credit card company to block any further withdrawals by you.

They are also sending me the paperwork to protest the $750 charge. I am not protesting the $69.00 previously paid to you.

If you have a reasonable offer to settle this, let me know.
