Scott:

I informed you on April 30, 2010 not to forward with the advertising. The most I can be held responsible for would be the $69 per month management fee which would mean the most I would still owe you is $138.00. I can only assume you are either getting a "kick back" on the advertising or you are simply pocketing most of the $750.00.

If I do not receive a refund, I will, if necessary, file a complaint with the New York State Attorney General's office.
