Re: Collins v. Yodle, et al
Index No.: 233271

Dear Mr. Rivchin:

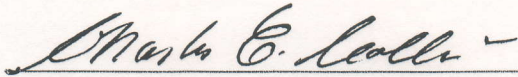

I am writing this letter pursuant to 22 NYCRR 202.7(c) in a good faith effort to resolve each response not satisfactorily answered by your clients. I object to your clients objections to certain questions contained in my interrogatories. Their objections are unfounded and are without any basis in fact or law. I request that they be answered in full in order to avoid having to file a motion to compel.

I would refer you to questions 4, 5, 6, 7, 12, 13, 14, 16, 18, 19, 20, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31 and 32.

I believe that the questions that your clients refused to answer are very relevant to the issues raised in my complaint.

I further need this information in order to prepare my questions for the oral depositions.

Respectfully yours,

Charles E. Collins, III
