Re: Collins v. Yodle, et al.

Dear Mr. Collins:

I am writing regarding your discovery Responses dated January 8 and 9, 2011, to let you know that I believe that they are legally inadequate and substantially not responsive to Yodle's legitimate and relevant Interrogatories and document requests concerning the liability and damages aspects of the claims set forth in your pleadings.

I ask that you reconsider those Interrogatories and document demands which you refused to respond to and provide me with proper Responses within 10 days of this letter; otherwise, I plan to file a Motion for appropriate relief.

In the meantime, I am holding your January 9, 2011 Second Set of Interrogatories in abeyance on the grounds that Yodle has provided you with Responses to your initial discovery requests, and you have failed to provide them with reasonable responses to theirs, and on the grounds, also, that I consider your Second Set of Interrogatories not relevant to any of the legitimate issues that are discernable in this lawsuit, that the Interrogatories are not reasonably calculated to lead to discovery of admissible evidence in this lawsuit, and that the Interrogatories are seeking disclosure of Yodle's proprietary business information and trade secrets.

Very truly yours,

O'CONNELL AND ARONOWITZ
